

Mark Your Calendar!

Water Education Foundation's

EXECUTIVE BRIEFING

Wave of Change: Breaking the Status Quo

Thursday, March 23, 2017

Hilton Sacramento Arden West, 2200 Harvard St.

A briefing for water district managers and board members, state and federal agency officials, city and county government officials, farmers, environmentalists, attorneys, consultants, engineers, business executives and public interest groups.

At this one-day event, top policymakers and leading stakeholders will provide you with the crucial information you need on:

- Tapping New Sources: Water for the 21st Century
- Getting Smarter About Water: Putting Data to Work
- A New Federal Administration: The View from DC
- Lifeline of the Southwest: Working to Avoid a Colorado River Shortage
- How the Water Flows: Update on the Proposed Delta Water Quality Plan
- Groundwater Management: Drilling into the Details of Sustainability Agencies

Confirmed speakers include Frances Spivy-Weber, Vice Chair of the California State Water Resources Control Board

REGISTRATION:

- $250 for Foundation Major Contributors
- $350 for non-contributors
- $175 for NGOs, university professors/students

WATER EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Don't forget to come prepared to bid on some great items at our Water Leaders Silent Auction!

Visit www.watereducation.org/conferences for more information